

Company Overview

TWHack Cyber Defense is an independent Ghana-based cybersecurity consultancy specializing in authorized penetration testing, vulnerability assessment, and defensive security strengthening services. We support public and private sector organizations seeking structured, confidential, and legally compliant security evaluations. All engagements operate under written authorization and defined scope agreements.

Core Competencies

- External Network Penetration Testing
- Internal Network Penetration Testing
- Web Application Security Testing (OWASP-aligned)
- Wireless Security Assessment
- Vulnerability Assessment & Risk Classification
- Security Hardening & Remediation Support
- Retesting & Validation
- Threat Intelligence Support

Differentiators

- Authorization-first engagement model
- Evidence-based reporting
- Executive and technical reporting formats
- Confidential engagement model
- African-based expertise with globally aligned standards

Operational Standards

TWHack Cyber Defense conducts all assessments within legal and contractual frameworks. We do not engage in unauthorized system access or unlawful activity.

Contact